About This Game

The Wizard's Tower is a Tower Defence game with a twist. As with standard Tower Defences enemies will advance upon the Wizard and attempt to destroy it. You will stop them using the wizards immense magical powers by conjuring up and utilising "Casting Towers".

"Casting Towers" allow you to channel the Wizard's power into "Spells". These come in three elements, Fire, Ice and Storm. Unlike most Tower Defences you choose when to fire each tower individually giving you far more control over how to get different spells to work together.

As well as the Elemental spells the Wizard has a variety of trump cards at his disposal. Greater Spells create game changing moments allowing you to steal victory back from the jaws of defeat, or turn ugly goblins into cute little bunnies.

The enemies come in a variety of shapes and sizes. Most as classified as standard and have varying different skills, speeds and health to deal with. However the real threat is the boss class enemies. Far larger than standard enemies boss enemies are extraordinarily powerful with unique and powerful skills that need a bit of extra thought to beat before they reach and destroy your Tower.

Do you like to click? Do you like to smash that click button till your finger bleeds? This is the game for you! PS... You might want to smash the keyboard to!. Zup! 2 is the sequel to a very simplistic put the object in the selected area, I guess you would just call it a clicker/timing game. This last sequel was a little bit challenging compared to the previous games.

Pros:

- + 1043 Stupidly easy achievements attainable in less than an hour
- + Letter and number achievements for your badges
- + Easy way to earn perfect game, up your achievement percentage, get steam cards and increase your achievement number
- + Bundle was less than $5 for 5 games

Cons:

- Not much to the game

9/10

Served the purpose to which we all bought the game initially, which was to get letters for our badges, a perfect game, easy 100+ achievements, and steam cards in less than an hour. Wouldn't replay but didn't regret.. This is a pretty fun game so far,

I just beat the Easy mode, which is 12 'days'. Each day, you fight a stronger enemy pirate ship. You have a rifle, which you aim with two hands, and a brace of pistols, with one shot each. At the start, you can only take a single hit, and use a power called Focus (basically, bullet time) with a long cooldown. You also have crates you can move around, hide behind, and throw, as well as explosive barrels and other things eventually.

After each day's battle, you are rewarded with gold and possibly an ability. You can take the gold to the Shop, and buy upgrades for you and your equipment (buy a better ship with more on it, upgrade weapons, or how many hits you can take, etc)

These are definitely important because the health of the enemies and amounts that show up each day increases, and the pirate that took 1 shot to kill a few days ago, might take 3 without upgrading your weapons.

After you beat easy mode, you unlock Hard Mode and the 100 Pirate War, which is a gauntlet that saves your highest score.. Great game really did love playing it.. Absolutely do not buy and do not support. This is a repackaging of the absolute failure of Welcome to Hanwell...and NOT EVEN A GOOD ONE! Nathan, instead of focusing on all this piddly crap like extra game modes, focus on making the actual MAIN game better. Improve the combat (which is trrrrashhhhhh) and fix some of the game breaking glitches. I'm pretty sure as an owner of WTH I got this for free but it was such a turn off after playing the original that I refuse to even acknowledge it. Disgusting. A bastardization of WHAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN horror game of 2017.. This Railworks Addons is it definitely worth the full price. There are many scenarios in the pack, and a huge amount of rolling stock, which gives this Route a very atmospheric experience as it was in the steam era around Nottingham.

One guy here in the feedback area wrote about the assets, that everybody could rebuild this route, because there are no "specific new" assets. In my opinion it's not about that, if you compare this route with pictures from the past 1950 between 1965 you will see this route is made very, very detailed. All the junctions, sidings and stations are named and are recognizable as it were.

Also it's not that easy rebuilt a Route from more than a half century back. There are maybe track plans left, but many of the Lines, Branches, Motive Power Depots (like Colwick, Annesley...) closed after 1970 as the steam era ended and rail tracks were dismantled.

This Time dovetail did good work and I can recommend it absolutely. I hope they know this level should be standard for selling other addons. Today it's not enough publish a product and think buyers will be happy if "it" moves a little bit forward and little bit backward. Many developers prove with their "pro" addons, that it's indeed possible to make this whole experience such realistic as possible on a computer.

If you like those animes, and the characters, it's okay to play.

But it's a bit too expensive.. Charming yet utterly hilarious. A real pleasure to play.. It's a great start for an interesting game that smashes the classic farming simulator with a classic business tycoon. It's super early though so obviously there are things to be worked out, but it's kind of cool to be involved so early so I can see the big changes that happen with each update.

The new tutorial is much appreciated! I know how to get my bud so I can sell it.

The development team is pretty responsive and they seem to be excited to make a great game.. Repetitive game, time management over and over again.

Game is expensive.. wtf I have played?. -Fully destructible environment!

-Customize your own mech!

-Use multiple combos to fight against evil cheezbots!

-Destroy public properties!

-Pizza!

10/10 Could live with it before Armored Core 6 comes out.. i love it so fun to play with people
